UTAH SUPREME COURT ANNOUNCES VACANCY ON STATE BAR COMMISSION

Salt Lake City, Utah—The Utah Supreme Court is seeking applicants who are interested in serving as a public member on the Utah State Bar Commission. The position is for a non-attorney to serve a three-year term.

The vacancy results from the resignation of D'Arcy Dixon Pignanelli following her appointment by Gov. Jon Huntsman, Jr. as executive director of the Dept. of Administrative Services. The Supreme Court acknowledges the outstanding service rendered by Ms. Pignanelli and expresses its appreciation for her skills and dedication.

The Bar Commission is the governing body of the Utah State Bar and consists of 13 voting members—11 elected lawyers and two non-lawyers who are appointed by the Utah Supreme Court.

Those interested in being considered for the public member position should submit a letter of interest and a resume by April 28, 2005 to the attention of Appellate Court Administrator Matty Branch, Utah Supreme Court, P.O. Box 140210, Salt Lake City, UT, 84114-0210. For more information, contact Matty Branch at (801) 578-3900.

Current members of the Bar Commission are listed on the Bar's Web site at www.utahbar.org/directories/bar\_commissioners.html.
